

Hello,I oppose limiting satellite radio in any of it's services. It seems foolish to allow some broadcasting mediums the right to give local traffic and weather reports and tell others that they can't. What is the logic behind that theory? The 1st amendment gives any person or organization the right of free speech. Let's not ignore the Constitution just to satisfy the bottom line profit of another citizen or organization.